

Joint Trust Guideline for the Assessment and Management of Children Referred with Acute Abdominal Pain

For Use in:

Children (≤16 years)

By:

Paediatric and Paediatric Surgical Directorate

For:

Clinical Staff reviewing Children on CAU & CHED

Division responsible for document:

Women and Children Division

Key words:

Abdominal Pain, Children, Admission Criteria, Referral Criteria

Name of document author:

Mr K Mansoor, Mr Richard England, Mr A B Mathur, Mr Milind Kulkarni

Job title of document author:

Senior Clinical Fellow, Consultant Paediatric Surgeons

Name of document author's Line Manager:

Mary-Anne Morris

Job title of author's Line Manager:

Chief of Service – Paediatrics

Supported by:

Mr Ashish Minocha (Consultant Paediatric Surgeon) NNUH

Mr Roshan Lal (Consultant in Surgery) JPUH

Assessed and approved

by the:

Clinical Guidelines Assessment Panel (CGAP)

If approved by committee or Governance Lead Chair's Action; tick here

Date of approval:

17/06/2019

Ratified by or reported as approved to (if applicable):

Clinical Safety and Effectiveness Sub-board

To be reviewed before:

17/06/2022

To be reviewed by:

Mr K Mansoor

Reference and / or Trust Docs ID No:

9402

Version No:

2

Description of changes:

Single point referral system for abdominal pain introduced for CAU.

More details added for acute appendicitis.

Compliance links:

National Institute of Clinical Excellence. Urinary tract infection in children. 2007

If Yes - does the strategy/policy deviate from the recommendations of NICE? If so why?

No deviation