

Safeguarding Adults from Abuse Information Leaflet

What is abuse?

Abuse is when someone hurts you or treats you badly. Abuse is always wrong.

What is safeguarding?

Safeguarding means making sure you are safe from abuse and neglect, and are able to be independent and make choices.

What kinds of abuse are there?

Physical-

- Hitting
- Biting
- kicking

Sexual abuse -

- When someone touches your body or your private parts in ways you do not like or want.
- Includes kissing you, making you touch them, having sex with you when you do not want them to.

Emotional abuse -

When people talk to you in unkind ways.

- teasing,
- · threatening,
- swearing,
- ignoring you,
- shouting,
- Putting you down or treating you like a child.

Review Due: April 2015

Financial abuse -

 When people take or control your money or things which belong to you.

Neglect -

This is when people who are supposed to help you don't look after you properly.

- Not giving you enough food,
- Not keeping you warm and safe,
- Not giving you medication or taking you to the doctors if you are ill.

Discrimination -

Is when people treat you badly or unfairly because of:

- The colour of your skin,
- Your religion,
- Your disability
- You are Lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender.

Institutional -

Is when an organisation or people who work in it;

- Give poor care
- Misuse their power
- Abuse your Trust
- Break your confidentiality
- Give poor service

Who might be an abuser?

Anyone can be an abuser;

- A member of staff
- Someone in your family
- A friend or neighbour
- Someone you don't know

What can you do?

If these things happen to you, you should tell someone that you trust. You could tell:

- Any member of staff in the hospital
- Someone in your family
- A friend
- The police

What will happen next?

- Your report will be taken seriously
- If you agree, or if hospital staff need to act in your best interests they will contact social services or the police on your behalf.
- Social Services are responsible for making sure this happens
- Professionals will try to find out more about what has happened.
- They will work together to try to protect you so that it doesn't happen again.
